Things your child might want to say to you about how they want to be loved.

Be gentle with words: Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words can bruise my heart.

Forgive me quickly: I promise I'll do the same for you. And remind me that God forgives me too.

Pray with me: Pray for me and teach me to pray as well.

Spend time with me: Even if we don't do anything special, please know that I just like being with you.

Discipline me fairly when I misbehave: Even though I don't like to be punished, I'm glad you care enough to teach me right from wrong.

Smile at me: It makes me feel welcomed, loved and important!
